

Eve Knight (on the Q&A panel)

Co-Founder and Chief Executive of AntiCoagulation Europe (ACE)

Eve Knight has worked in the charity sector for over twenty five years. She is Co-Founder and Chief Executive of the leading thrombosis charity AntiCoagulation Europe. Working to prevent thrombosis and providing advice, information and support to people on anticoagulant and antiplatelet therapy.

She is a member of several groups including The European Action for Stroke prevention Alliance; The All Party Thrombosis Group and The European Task Force looking at Bleeding Risk Assessments in atrial fibrillation patients. She is also a Section Editor for the British Journal of Cardiology and the British Journal of Primary Care Nursing.

In the UK she has been a member of several boards and committees including the Government Modernisation Board for the NHS, The External Advisory Group for the National Service Framework for Coronary Heart Disease and The National CHD Task Force.

Copyright notice

You are about to download a personal biography. The Boehringer Ingelheim group of companies owns the extensive copyrights for this biography. We, as owner of the copyrights, give you the right to download this biography and to duplicate, publish and distribute it for your publishing activities as long as the biography bears the attribution "Copyright: Boehringer Ingelheim GmbH". Publication details and a voucher copy should be sent to us.